

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

|                               |   |               |
|-------------------------------|---|---------------|
| MARY CLARK,                   | ) |               |
|                               | ) |               |
| Plaintiff,                    | ) | 8:09CV315     |
|                               | ) |               |
| v.                            | ) |               |
|                               | ) |               |
| CAPITAL ONE BANK, INC., and   | ) | AMENDED ORDER |
| BRUMBAUGH AND QUANDAHL, P.C., | ) |               |
| LLO,                          | ) |               |
|                               | ) |               |
| Defendants.                   | ) |               |
| _____                         | ) |               |

This matter is before the Court on several motions the parties have filed.

IT IS ORDERED:

1) Defendant Capital One Bank's motion for protective order (Filing No. 56) is granted; access to Filing No. 43 is restricted to court personnel and counsel of record in order to protect personal data identifiers inadvertently left therein;

2) Plaintiff Mary Clark ("Clark") shall file an opposing brief to defendant Brumbaugh & Quandahl's ("B & Q") motion to quash (Filing No. 64) no later than Wednesday, June 9, 2010, and B & Q shall file a reply brief no later than Wednesday, June 16, 2010; and

3) B & Q shall file an opposing brief to Clark's motion to compel (Filing No. 69) no later than Wednesday, June 9,

2010, and Clark shall file a reply brief no later than Wednesday, June 16, 2010.

DATED this 8th day of June, 2010.

BY THE COURT:

/s/ Lyle E. Strom

---

LYLE E. STROM, Senior Judge
United States District Court